

Anheuser-Busch Packaging Group (ABPG)

Packaging and Recycling Subsidiaries

---

Provides a reliable source of high-quality lids, cans, bottles and other packaging materials for Anheuser-Busch's U.S. beer operation; helping to manage the supply, cost and quality of packaging materials.

Metal Container Corp.: Supplies more than 60 percent of Anheuser-Busch's U.S. beer cans and 75 percent of its domestic lids.

Produces cans and lids for major U.S. soft drink companies including PepsiCo, Coca-Cola and Hansen Natural Corp.

Operates can plants in the following U.S. cities:

- Arnold, Mo.
- Columbus, Ohio
- Fort Atkinson, Wis.
- Jacksonville, Fla.
- Mira Loma, Calif.
- Newburgh, N.Y.
- Rome, Ga.
- Windsor, Colo.

Operates lid plants in the following U.S. cities:

- Gainesville, Fla.
- Oklahoma City, Okla.
- Riverside, Calif.

Anheuser-Busch
Recycling Corp.:

Celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2008, it is one of the world's largest recyclers of aluminum cans.

Recycled more than 125 percent of the cans packaged at Anheuser-Busch's U.S. breweries and more than 800 million pounds of aluminum in 2007, the equivalent of more than 27 billion cans.

Operates a recycling facility in Hayward, Calif., and buys and sells aluminum beverage containers from its corporate office in Sunset Hills, Mo.

Longhorn Glass Corp.:

Located in Jacinto City, Texas, it supplies more than 60 percent of the glass bottles for the nearby Houston brewery.

Produced more than 800 million bottles or approximately 8 percent of Anheuser-Busch's total glass bottle needs in 2007.

Eagle Packaging, Inc.:

Manufactures crown and closure liner materials at its plant in Bridgeton, Mo.

###